

PARTY LIKE A PRINCESS - JAMIE GRACE

Jamie Grace released a new single, Party Like a Princess (November 18th, 2016), to remind believers that their worth is found in their Father, the King, rather than the princes of this world.

Jamie Grace is a musician, speaker and actress from Atlanta, Georgia. Diagnosed with Tourette Syndrome at the age of 11 she lives life with a streak of resilience and dedication that is well beyond her years. She began acting and singing as a young child in school and church programs. A few years after her diagnosis of TS, OCD and ADHD she began pursuing music, acting and speaking as a career and a way to encourage other kids who may also have struggles in life. She has since founded ImAFighter.org and the Jamie Grace Foundation, both which advocate for children and families.

When Jamie Grace was 14, she created youtube channels for her music and for “ImAFighter” which, over the years, garnered the attention of record labels and producers. At the age of 17, Jamie Grace became a cast member on TBN’s iShine KNECT and began touring with iShine LIVE with her self-produced Pop/Hip Hop CD. Her Youtube channel continued to open doors which included being signed a major record label and joining the national tour The Revolve Tour as a keynote speaker. As she grew as an artist, songwriter and guitarist, she developed the “Jamie Grace sound” heard in “Hold Me” and “Beautiful Day” and continued to tour and record albums. At 19 she was nominated for a Grammy Award, Billboard Award and multiple Dove Awards where she went home as the Dove Award’s New Artist of the Year.

At just 24 years old, now independent artist Jamie Grace has 4 #1 radio singles, many nominations as a singer/songwriter, millions of views on her weekly Youtube videos and a “crazy but awesome” (as Jamie Grace explains it) tour schedule. She is also half of Harper Still, a country-influenced pop duo with her older sister and writing partner Morgan Harper Nichols. While recording her 3rd studio album, Jamie Grace currently serves as a worship leader at her home church in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

LYRICS

When I walked into the party everybody just stopped
Even the DJ wasn't ready to see me without
A boy who isn't ready to be a king
So tell me why would I be chasing him to be his queen

Don't you know who my Daddy is?
Don't you know what my Daddy did?
Don't you know who my Daddy is?
He paid it all, I'm the belle of this ball

So I'm gonna
Party like a princess
Party like a princess
Party like a princess
I don't need a prince to party like a princess

So let me tell you something' that you're needin' to hear
Turn it up to 11, won't you lend me your ear
Royalty is in your blood, you're an heir to the throne
Whether you're a baby or have babies of your own

Don't you know who your Daddy is?
Don't you know what your Daddy did?
Don't you know who your Daddy is?
He paid it all, you're the belle of this ball

So won't you
Party like a princess
Party like a princess
Party like a princess
I don't need a prince to party like a princess

PARTY LIKE A PRINCESS - JAMIE GRACE

2 Corinthians 6: 14-18, New International Version (NIV)

14 Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness? 15 What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? 16 What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

“I will live with them
and walk among them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people.”^c

17 Therefore,

“Come out from them
and be separate,
says the Lord.

Touch no unclean thing,
and I will receive you.”^d

18 And,

“I will be a Father to you,
and you will be my sons and daughters,
says the Lord Almighty.”

1. What does it mean to be ‘yoked together’?
2. What is Paul talking about in verses 14-16a? Why do we need to hear that?
3. Do those three verses apply to us today? Why or why not?
4. What does it mean to you that “we are the temple of the living God”?
5. What does God promise us in verse 16b? What does that mean?
6. What are the requirements placed upon us in verse 17? What are those important?
7. What does verse 18 mean for us?
8. How does this passage relate to today’s song?
9. Knowing how God thinks about us (as His people, as His sons and daughters, as princes and princesses), how should the way we live change?
