

God's Provision

MANNA!

Exodus 16-17

God sent Mana for the people to eat. It came every morning & covered the ground a little like this picture of snow.

It was supposed to look a little like Coriander seed & tasted like it was made with Honey!

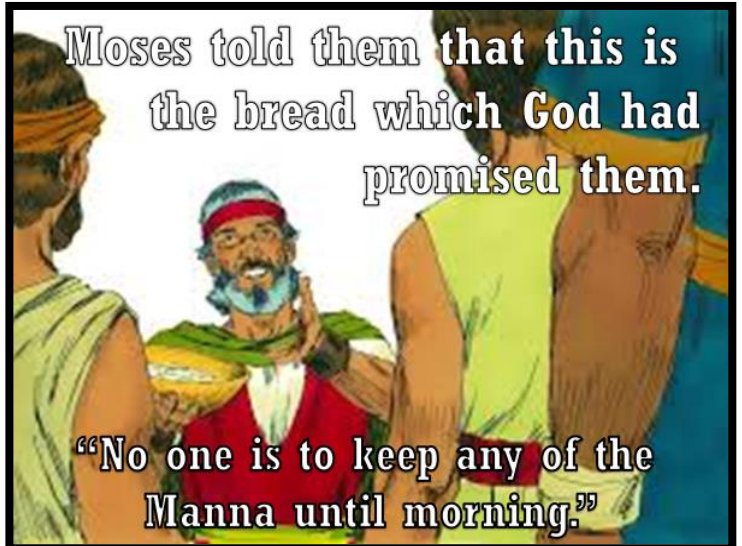

Then Manna came every morning, then when the sun came up it melted the Manna away!

The people looked at it & said, "What is it?" They had never seen anything like it before.

The word "Mana" actually means, "What is it?"

Moses told them that this is the bread which God had promised them.

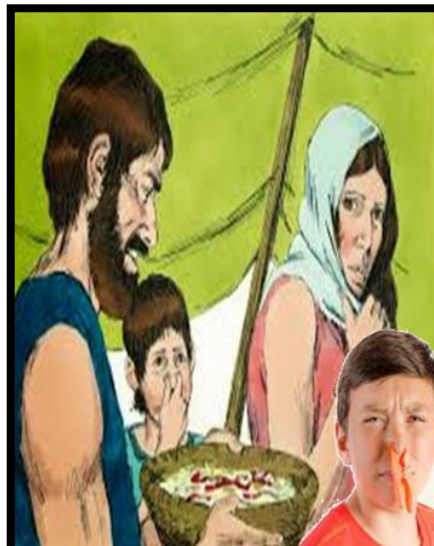

"No one is to keep any of the Manna until morning."

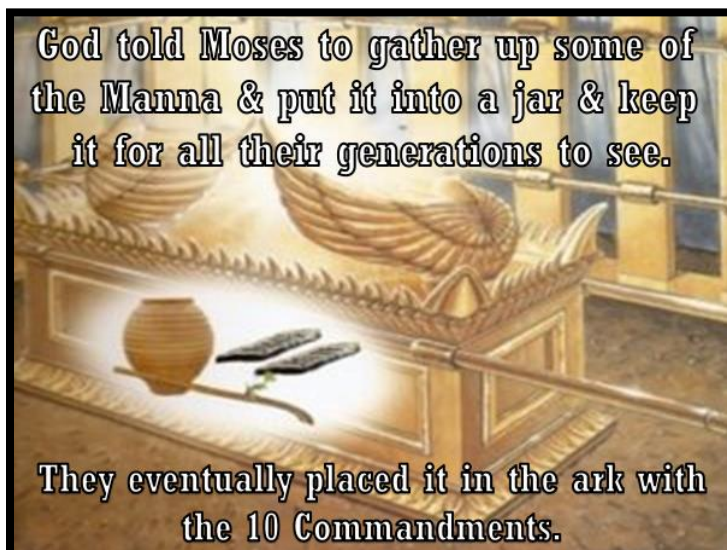

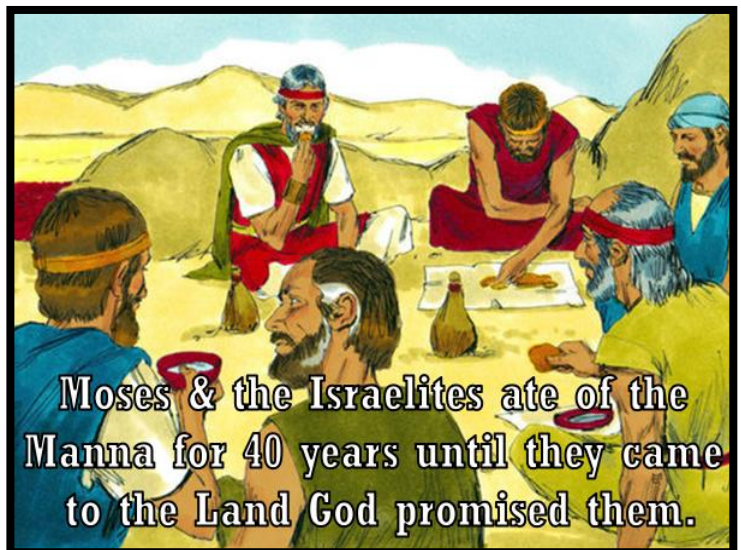

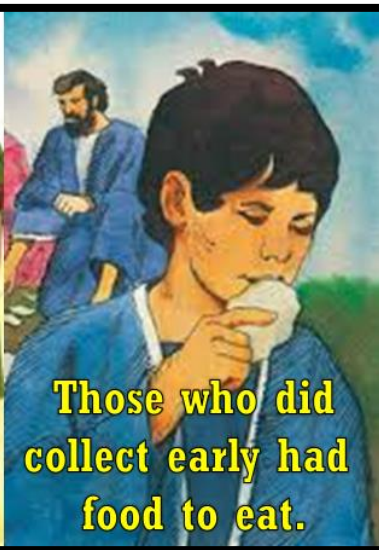

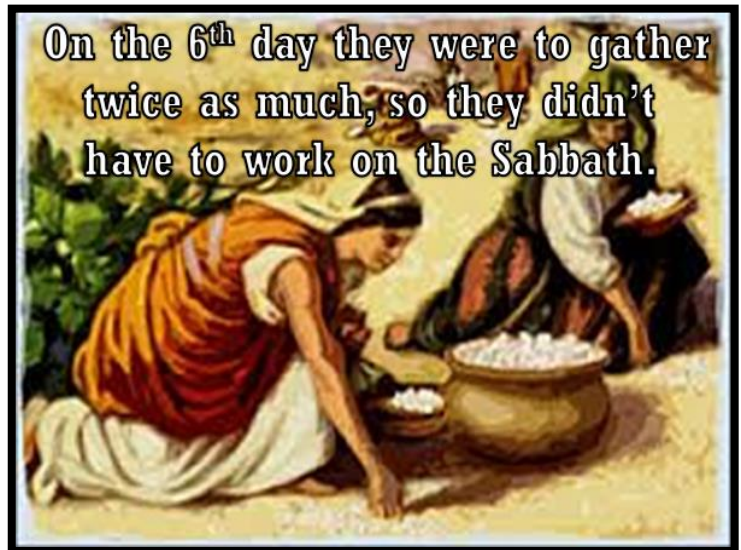

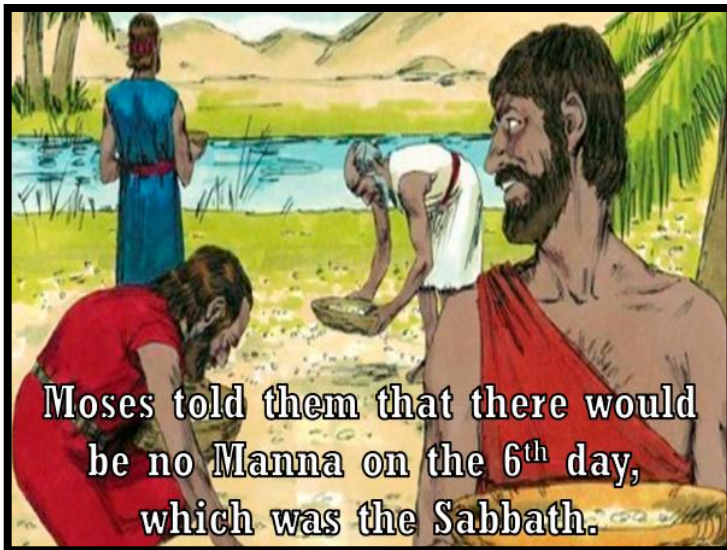

They were supposed to pick up only as much as they could eat for that day.

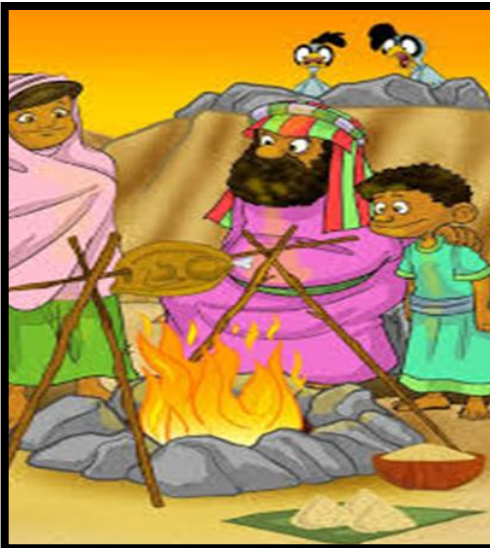

If they took up more, than it would go bad & have maggots in it. →

Some of them didn't listen & kept Mana over night & it smelled, & had maggots in it just like God said!

God had provided for their needs again!

So every day God provided bread in the morning with the Manna & meat in the evening with the Quail.
Except on the Sabbath 6th day.

A little while later they came & started to complain to Moses that they didn't have any water.

Again they were screaming, “Did you bring us out to the desert to make us die of thirst!”

Moses said, “Why do you want to fight with me & put the Lord to the test!”

God told him to take his staff & to hit a certain rock with it & water came pouring out of it!

Remember they had 2.5-3,000,000 people at this time, & God provided for them again!

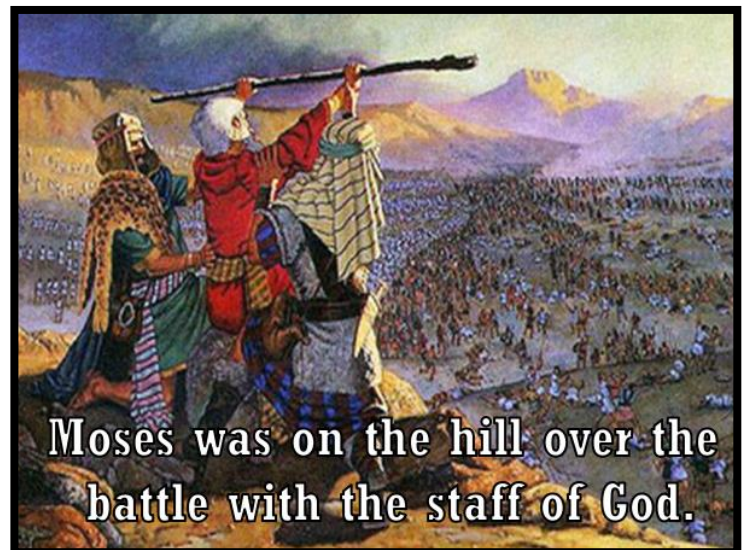

Some Amalekites came & attacked the Israelites. So Moses said to Joshua to get the men ready fight the next day.

The men went out to fight the Amalekites the next day

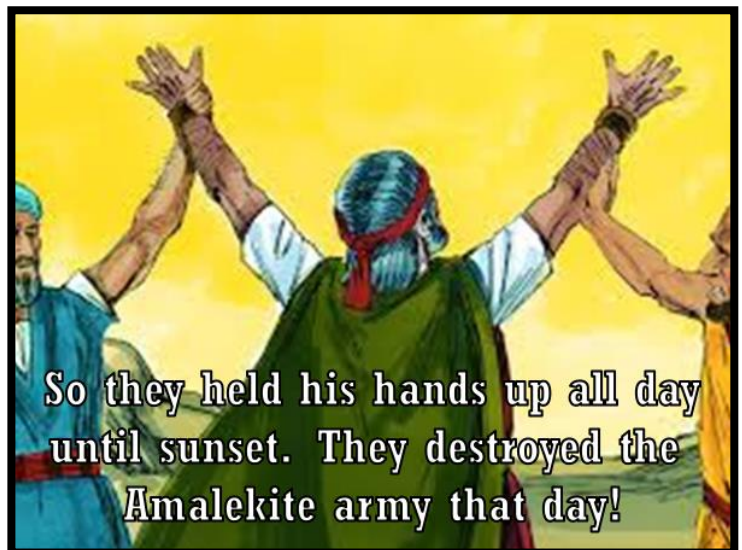

Moses was on the hill over the battle with the staff of God.

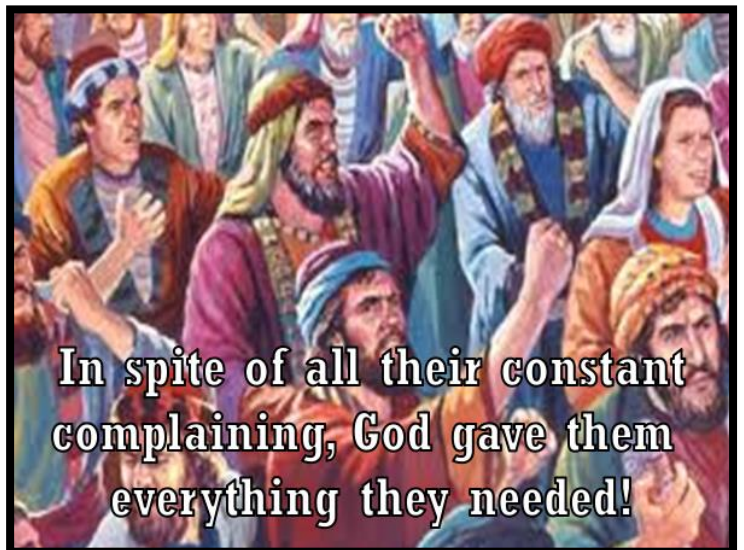

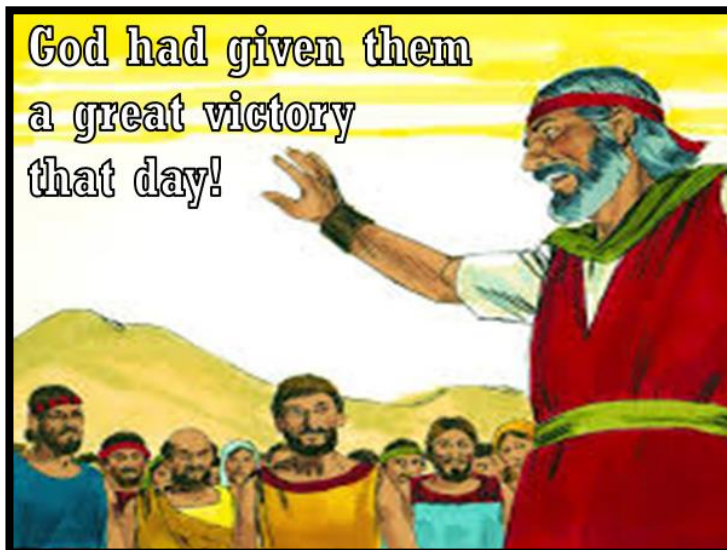

As long as Moses held his hands up then the Israelites would win, but when He put his hands down They would start to lose.

So they held his hands up all day until sunset. They destroyed the Amalekite army that day!
